

COACH FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROJECT
2013-14 WORKSHOP SERIES

Session 1 – Saturday, October 12, 2013

Session 2 – Saturday, February 1, 2014

8:00 - 1:00

Los Alamitos High School

World Languages and the Common Core: Preparing your students for life!

Get to the core of Common Core...

- How does Common Core affect world language teachers? Where do we fit in? What does it mean to me?
- How do we prepare our students to live and work in a global society?
- How do we incorporate 21st Century skills into our world language curriculum?

Learn how to...

- Design purposeful curriculum and lessons that make students think & communicate
- Engage all students with meaningful comprehensible input
- Personalize every lesson
- Use authentic sources and technology
- Vertically align courses--AP begins in level 1
- Plan within the themes of AP

- ✓ Cost: $100 per workshop, $175 for both (Student teachers $50, $85)
- ✓ Registration: Session 1 and series: Pay by October 5, Session 2: January 25
- ✓ Late registration fee:$20
- ✓ Scholarship available, apply on our website as soon as possible
- ✓ College credit available through University of the Pacific
- ✓ Teachers who attend both workshops will be entered into a lottery for the Bonus Observation (COACH pays for your sub so you can spend a day observing a COACH teacher)

Questions?

registration@coachflproject.org or contact: Shari Kaulig 562.429.0840, Cynthia Leathers 310.373.9919

Website: <http://coachflproject.org>

